

Dr. Stephanie Woelfel PT, DPT, CWS is an Associate Professor of Clinical Physical Therapy in the Division of Biokinesiology and Physical Therapy and holds a dual faculty appointment in the Department of Surgery at the University of Southern California (USC). Dr. Woelfel holds board certifications in wound management from both the American Board of Wound Management and the American Board of Physical Therapy Specialties. She is the Director of Physical Therapy for Hospital Outpatient Services at Keck Medical Center of USC. She is also the primary physical therapist in the Southwestern Academic Limb Salvage Alliance (SALSA) clinic of USC.

Her physical therapy career has spanned over 20 years in both short and long-term acute care, skilled nursing facilities, outpatient, home care and consulting. Dr. Woelfel is active in the American Physical Therapy Association (APTA) and serves as the current President of the Academy of Clinical Electrophysiology & Wound Management (ACEWM). She is also on the Board of Directors for the National Pressure Injury Advisory Panel (NPIAP) and the Post Acute Wound & Skin Integrity Council (PAWSIC).